

Biomedical Library Addition & Renovation

Order BML Annex Materials Online

You may now order BML materials stored in the Annex by using an electronic order form. The form may be found at:

<http://rohan.ucsd.edu/biomed/>

The library will move 50,000 journal volumes to the Annex in the summer of 2003 in preparation for the addition and renovation to the Biomedical Library.

The materials will remain in the Annex at least until the completion of the building project in July 2006.
