

Accession No.: 92-03

PROCESSING RECORD
SCRIPPS INSTITUTION OF OCEANOGRAPHY ARCHIVES

Cole, William Storrs 1902-1989

William Storrs Cole Photographs, 1932

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: Sixteen negatives; twelve 3 x 4 inch photographs; one 5 x 7 inch photograph

DESCRIPTION: Photographs of micropaleontologist William Storrs Cole, his wife Gladys W. Cole, SIO Director T. Wayland Vaughan, and the SIO campus and cottages, c1932.

William Storrs Cole Photographs, 1932
Accession No.: 92-03

PHOTOGRAPHS - 3 x 4 inch

Scripps Institute looking from slope where our cottage was and La Jolla in the background – July 1932

Coastline with coastal cliffs

W. Storrs Cole and Thomas Wayland Vaughan

Three barracuda fish caught by Storrs in July 1932 in the Pacific Ocean N. La Jolla Coast

Storrs with three barracuda weighing about five pounds each. August 1932

Storrs with three barracuda weighing about five pounds each. August 1932

Thomas Wayland Vaughan with woman (Mrs. Vaughan?) and dog, SIO Director's House.

Gip and Gladys by fig tree

Our cottage at Scripps, Summer 1932, Also Gladys and Gip sitting up in foreground

Cole's SIO cottage, with Gip and Gladys

Scripps campus, shot from the hillside above

Gip (dog) on upper Scripps campus, with Scripps pier in background

PHOTOGRAPHS - 5 x 7 inch

Thomas Wayland Vaughan working at desk

NEGATIVES - 3 x 4 inch

Thomas Wayland Vaughan with woman (Mrs. Vaughan?) and dog, SIO Director's House.

Scripps campus, shot from the hillside above

Three barracuda fish caught by Storrs in July 1932 in the Pacific Ocean N. La Jolla Coast

Scripps cottage

NEGATIVES - 3 x 4 inch (continued)

Arch rock on coastal cliff

Scripps Institute looking from slope where our cottage was and La Jolla in the background – July 1932

Storrs with three barracuda weighing about five pounds each. August 1932

Storrs with three barracuda weighing about five pounds each. August 1932

Three barracuda fish caught by Storrs in July 1932 in the Pacific Ocean N. La Jolla Coast

Coastline with coastal cliffs

La Jolla from top of Mount Soledad

View of Scripps Institution from top of Mount Soledad

View from top of Mount Soledad

View from top of Mount Soledad