George Thomson Hemingway Papers, 1942 – 1999

Bulk Dates 1966-1999

Physical Description: 4 mss, 2 16mm film reels

Arrangement of Collection: subject files in alphabetical arrangement

Description: The collection constitutes the personal papers of biologist George Thomson Hemingway, including correspondence, memoranda, data, photographs and reports. The bulk of the collection concerns the California Cooperative Oceanic Fisheries Investigation (CalCOFI). The collection includes files on CalCOFI history, drafts and correspondence concerning CalCOFI conferences and agreements, and photographs of CalCOFI cruises. The collection includes correspondence in English and Spanish with marine institutions in Mexico and Peru about oceanographic studies in general, and specifically on CalCOFI. The collection includes photographs and original negatives that include images of the campus of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, images of CalCOFI and other cruises at sea, and photographs of marine scientists and colleagues. The collection includes ten photographic prints showing the demolition of the old SIO Library (built 1915) in August 1977. The collection includes a 2-reel (58 minutes) 16mm color, sound, film in Spanish entitled, "El Instituto de Oceanografía de Scripps de La Jolla, California," produced by Consejo Nacional De Ciencia Y Tecnología Mexico (CONACYT) in 1981 for public television in Mexico. In this film, Spanish speaking staff at the SIO talk about their research, and the narrator is George T. Hemingway.

Biography: George Thomson Hemingway was born August 23, 1940 in Corvallis, Oregon. He received a B.S. in zoology from San Diego State College in 1966 and an M.S. in Biology from San Diego State University in 1973. He joined the staff of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, UCSD in 1966 as a marine technician and served as head of the Zooplankton Biomass Lab at SIO 1968-1969. Hemingway served as California Cooperative Fisheries Investigations coordinator in the 1980's. He retired from SIO in 2000.
