Parsons, Patti

Patti Parsons photographs, 1976-1994

Physical Description: 6 Manuscript Boxes

Description: The accession consists of photographic prints and negatives taken by Patti Parsons, administrative assistant to Scripps Institution of Oceanography Directors William A. Nierenberg and Edward A. Frieman, which document groundbreaking ceremonies, ship dedications, retirement and other parties, distinguished visitors and other activities involving the office of the director during the period 1976-1994.

The accession includes images of Edward A. Frieman, William A. Nierenberg, Jeffery D. Frautschy, George L. Matson, Roger Revelle, Cecil Green and others. Dedication of R/V Robert Gordon Sproul, San Diego visit of R/V Alcyone, ground breaking for the Scripps pier, birth days parties of William Nierenberg and Roger Revelle, retirement parties for Jeffery Frautschy, George Matson, and Alexandra Dean, annual Scripps beach picnics and other events are documented in these photographs. The images also include fashion photographs of Vogue models with Dr. Nierenberg. The accession includes photographs of the 1988 visit of Vice President George Herbert Walker Bush to the Scripps Institution of Oceanography.
